To Whom It May Concern.

It has come to my attention that Kate Ashmor, Chair, of the Committee for Monash, recently tendered a letter to the Redistribution Committee for Victoria, of the Australian Electoral Commission, proposing that the name of the Electorate of Melbourne Ports, be changed to Monash.

I have read the content of the letter in which the Committee for Monash makes a case for this proposal, and having studied the life of General Sir John Monash over the last 12 months, I find myself in accord with this suggestion.

It seems that this is an historic opportunity to appropriately honour our greatest Australian, and I commend the submission to the Redistribution Committee, for consideration.
