As one who has lived in Warringah for 25 years & assimilated there I strongly urge you to consider the proposal put forward by the current member for Warringah, the Honourable Zali Steggall.

Additionally, the name Warringah, as I understand it, is one of the few Federal seats with an aboriginal name and Warringah has a long & proud democratic history deserving of recognition.

Since I can see no valid arguments to change the name and/or to abolish the seat, I assume there are some hidden Machiavellian reasons to do this & they MUST NOT be allowed to influence the decisions.

Yours sincerely,

John Gilmour
