Introduction

The Commonwealth funding and disclosure scheme (the disclosure scheme) established under Part XX of the Commonwealth Electoral Act 1918 (Electoral Act), deals with the public funding of federal election campaigns and the disclosure of detailed financial information.

The disclosure scheme was introduced to increase overall transparency and inform the public about the financial dealings of political parties, candidates and others involved in the electoral process.

The disclosure scheme requires federally registered political parties, their state branches and local branches/sub-party units (referred to collectively as political parties in this guide), their associated entities, political campaigners, donors and other participants in the electoral process, to lodge an annual or election period financial disclosure return with the Australian Electoral Commission (AEC). The disclosure returns are then published on the AEC website.

The Guide

This version of the Financial Disclosure Guide for Associated Entities (Guide for associated entities) applies to returns for the 2018–19 financial year. While the guide is intended to assist associated entities with meeting their disclosure requirements, it does not address the whole of the Electoral Act. Users should familiarise themselves with the relevant part of the Electoral Act and seek independent legal advice where necessary.

In addition to lodging an Associated Entity Disclosure Return, some associated entities may also have an obligation to lodge a Third Party Return of Electoral Expenditure. Accordingly, it is recommended associated entities also familiarise themselves with the disclosure obligations of third parties.

The Electoral Act and all guides published by the AEC are available at www.aec.gov.au. The annual and election returns are also available for viewing on this site after the public release date. A searchable database is provided which allows data to be exported.

The guide incorporates text boxes to highlight important information. Each text box is prefaced with a symbol. For example:

Registration as an associated entity

A person or entity must register as an associated entity if any of the following apply during the financial year:

- the entity is controlled by one or more registered political parties;
- the entity operates wholly, or to a significant extent, for the benefit of one or more registered political parties;
- the entity is a financial member of a registered political party;
- another person is a financial member of a registered political party on behalf of the entity;
- the entity has voting rights in a registered political party;
- another person has voting rights in a registered political party on behalf of the entity.

Registration

A person or entity that meets the definition of an associated entity must register with the AEC before the end of 90 days after becoming required to be registered. A person or entity that is required to be registered in a financial year must not incur further electoral expenditure in that financial year until they are registered.

Details of registered associated entities are recorded on the Transparency Register published on the on the AEC website.

If a registered associated entity no longer meets the requirements to be an associated entity, the associated entity may apply to be deregistered at any time by completing and submitting an Application to Deregister form to the AEC.

Section 287(1) of the Electoral Act provides the meaning of an associated entity.

Section 287H of the Electoral Act provides for when a person or entity must register as an associated entity.

Section 287M of the Electoral Act enables an associated entity to apply to the Electoral Commissioner to be deregistered.

Section 287N of the Electoral Act provides for the establishment and maintenance of a Transparency Register.

Annual disclosure

An associated entity that is also registered as a political campaigner must only lodge a Political Campaigner Return. The political campaigner guide is available on the AEC website at www.aec.gov.au.

An associated entity that does not meet the definition of a political campaigner but incurs electoral expenditure above the threshold must also lodge a Third Party Return. The third party guide is available on the AEC website at www.aec.gov.au.

Responsibility for lodging the Associated Entity return (the return)

The financial controller of the associated entity must lodge the return. If the associated entity is an individual, he or she may nominate himself or herself as the financial controller, or if the associated entity is not a legal person, an individual acting on behalf of the entity must nominate the financial controller.

Section 287(1) of the Electoral Act provides the meaning of a financial controller.

Section 292F of the Electoral Act provides the conditions that must be met to be nominated as a financial controller.

Financial controller details must be provided to the AEC when submitting an Application for Registration as an Associated Entity.

Changes to financial controller details must be provided to the AEC within 90 days of the information ceasing to be correct or complete using a Change to Transparency Register form available on the AEC website.

Reporting period

The return covers the financial year 1 July 2018 to 30 June 2019. For an associated entity that is registered or is deregistered during the financial year, the return must be provided in relation to the period it was an associated entity.

A return must be lodged regardless of whether an associated entity has any transactions to report.

Disclosure threshold

The disclosure threshold for the 2018–19 financial year is for amounts of more than $13,800. This figure is indexed annually.

Due date for lodging returns

The AEC will advise financial controllers of their obligation to lodge a return following the conclusion of the financial year. Associated entities should ensure their contact details with the AEC are current.

Completed returns, including nil returns must reach the AEC no later than 16 weeks after the end of the financial year.

For the 2018-19 financial year, the due date is 21 October 2019.

The AEC has no legislative discretion to extend this deadline.

Returns are published on the AEC website on the first working day of February. The names of all associated entities that fail to submit a return by the due date will be published at this time.

Lodging your return

Associated entities can prepare and lodge their returns online via the eReturns portal. The eReturns portal can be accessed from https://ereturns.aec.gov.au. The easiest way to lodge your return accurately and on time is to use the eReturns portal; it is quick, secure and allows importing/exporting of files which eliminates transcription errors. To assist with completing a return online, the eReturns Associated Entity Quick Reference Guide, a step-by-step guide is available on the AEC website. See .

Penalties

The Electoral Act imposes civil penalties and in some cases criminal penalties if a person or entity contravenes the requirements of the Electoral Act. The AEC provides support, including this guide, to assist associated entities to comply with their disclosure obligations.

The AEC deals with non-compliance as appropriate to the circumstances, including possible referral to the Commonwealth Director of Public Prosecutions. Refer to Appendix 2 of this guide for a list of civil and criminal penalties that may apply to associated entities under the Electoral Act.

Political parties, candidates, Senate groups, associated entities, political campaigners, third parties and donors may be subject to a compliance review by the AEC to assess the completeness and accuracy of lodged disclosure returns.

Please note that a number of state and territory jurisdictions have their own disclosure schemes, which are separate to the Commonwealth disclosure scheme. Links to the websites of State electoral offices are available via the AEC website.

Important Information

Definition of a donation

A donation has the same meaning as a gift under the Electoral Act. A gift is defined as any disposition of property made by a person to another person, being a disposition made without consideration in money or money's worth or with inadequate consideration, and includes the provision of a service (other than volunteer labour) for no consideration or for inadequate consideration, but does not include:

- (a) a payment under Division 3; or
- (b) an annual subscription paid to a political party, to a State branch of a political party or to a division of a State branch of a political party by a person in respect of the person's membership of the party, branch or division; or
- (c) any visit, experience or activity provided for the purposes of a political exchange program.

A gift also includes a 'gift-in-kind' such as the provision of a service (other than volunteer labour) for no consideration (see Part 2b for examples).

Section 287(1) of the Electoral Act provides the meaning of a gift.

Restrictions on receiving gifts from foreign donors

The Electoral Act restricts political entities, political campaigners and third parties from receiving gifts from foreign donors. The Electoral Act has anti-avoidance provisions to prevent schemes to avoid these restrictions by channelling foreign donations to political entities, political campaigners or third parties via a relevant person or entity (such as an associated entities).

It is an offence under section 302H to establish arrangements to avoid the foreign donations restrictions. The Electoral Commissioner can issue a written notice if:

- A relevant person or entity (alone or with others) enters into, begins to carry out or carries out a scheme
- There are reasonable grounds to conclude the relevant person did so for the sole or dominant purpose of avoiding foreign donation restrictions
- The scheme avoids the application of a foreign donation restriction, and
- The scheme involved donation splitting, conduit corporations or any other unspecified avoidance scheme.

A person or entity who commits an offence may be subject to both civil or criminal penalties.

Section 302H of the Electoral Act prohibits schemes or arrangements for receiving foreign donations.

Electoral matter and electoral expenditure

Electoral expenditure is expenditure incurred for the dominant purpose of creating or communicating electoral matter. Electoral matter is matter communicated or intended to be communicated for the dominant purpose of influencing the way electors vote in an election. Further information can be found in the Factsheet on Electoral Matter and Electoral Expenditure available on the AEC website.

Section 287AB of the Electoral Act provides the meaning of electoral expenditure, and section 4AA of the Electoral Act provides the meaning of electoral matter.

Receipts and debts from a representative or a person acting on behalf of a principal

Care must be exercised to ensure that disclosure is made of the correct person or organisation. A gift made by a person from their personal account must be disclosed as having been received from that person. This is regardless of whether that person nominated that the donation was made on behalf of their company and irrespective of whether the person was subsequently reimbursed by the company.

The only exception to this rule is where one person, organisation or other entity is acting as the legal representative of another person or organisation (the principal). The identity of the principal itself, rather than the identity of the agent is to be disclosed, where the amount received from the principal is more than the disclosure threshold

For example:

- In the case of a payment from a solicitor's trust account, disclosure should be made in relation to the person on whose behalf the payment is made, for example, {name of trust account} on behalf of {name of principal}.
- In the case of an employer passing employee contributions or levies to a political party or associated entity as the agent for the employee, disclosure of the employee, not the employer, must be made.

The concept of principal and agent is different to situations where someone makes donations to a political campaigner from donations that they have themselves collected, or for which they are later reimbursed. In these situations the person handing over the donation would be disclosed.

The return

An associated entity must disclose the following information in the return:

- other business names—see Part 1a
- related bodies corporate—see Part 1b
- unions—see Part 1c
- total receipts—see Part 2a
- value of gifts-in-kind—see Part 2b
- details of receipts greater than the disclosure threshold—see Part 3
- total payments—see Part 4
- total debts—see Part 5
- details of debts greater than the disclosure threshold—see Part 6
- details of discretionary benefits—see Part 7
- details of capital contributions—see Part 8

Sections 314AEA, 314AC and 314AE of the Electoral Act govern the lodgement of annual returns by associated entities.

Part 1a: Other business names

An associated entity should list any other names under which it conducts business.

Part 1b: Related bodies corporate

The Electoral Act deems related bodies corporate to be the same entity. Related bodies corporate has the same meaning under the Electoral Act as defined in section 50 of the Corporations Act 2001.

The parent company of the group, therefore, should lodge under its name a return consolidated across the entire group and list in this part of the return the names of all related bodies corporate.

Section 287(6) of the Electoral Act deems related bodies corporate to be the same entity.

Part 1c: Are you a union?

Where an associated entity is a union, the associated entity should list the name and address of any subsidiaries or branches on behalf of whom the return is being lodged.

Part 2a: Total receipts for financial year 1 July 2018 to 30 June 2019

Part 1a of the return requires disclosure of the total of all amounts received from external entities.

Amounts received include, but are not limited to, the following:

- gifts of money
- gifts-in-kind of services or goods
- membership subscriptions
- loan monies received
- returns on investments
- proceeds from the sale of assets
- public funding provided by the Commonwealth or a State or Territory
- discretionary benefits provided by the Commonwealth or a State or Territory

Section 314AEA(1)(a) of the Electoral Act provides for the disclosure of the total amount received by, or on behalf of, the associated entity during the financial year.

When determining what transactions need to be included in Part 2a of the return, the following principles should be observed:

- All receipts of the associated entity must be disclosed, including those that are not to the benefit of a registered political party.
- Transactions such as transfers between the associated entity and a political party must be included.
- Receipts of related body corporates of the associated entity (as determined under the Corporations Act 2001) must be included.
  - In general, related body corporates are entities at least 50 per cent owned or controlled by another entity, or entities over which that other entity is able to exert control.
- Where the associated entity is lodging on behalf of related entities, receipts of related entities should be consolidated before determining whether the disclosure threshold has been reached, and one return lodged on behalf of all entities.
- When an associated entity is a trust, trustees have the reporting obligation.
  - Where funds or assets are received from a trustee, it should be disclosed as 'ABC as trustee for XYZ Trust', not just the trust name or the trustee name.
  - Trustees should not list transactions involving their own trusts.

 If an investigation of a trust is undertaken, a copy of the trust deed will be requested as a matter of course in order to allow the AEC to readily determine the relevant features of the trust.

Examples of receipts that are required to be included in Part 2a of the return could be:

- membership fees
- a gift of $15,000 cash
- a donation of printing of stationery that if purchased commercially would have been priced at $350
- interest on term deposit of $2,755
- loan of $7,000 cash received from a financial institution
- three separate gifts of $8,000 each are received from a person on different days
- rent received of $15,000 relating to commercial premises owned by the associated entity
- a cheque for $400 relating to the sale of office furniture from the office of the associated entity
- two separate donations are received from the same person on different days. One amount is $9,500 and the other is $35,000 both of which are included
- a discretionary grant of $10,000 received from a State, Territory or Federal Government.
- a capital contribution of $10,000.

Disclosure of gross amounts

Total receipts must be disclosed on a gross basis inclusive of goods and services tax (GST) and merchant fees. Further, in calculating the total amount received, individual amounts received must not be netted against amounts paid in relation to the same transaction—each transaction must be reported separately. For example:

- a fundraiser taking $14,000 with costs of $12,750 and a net profit of $1,250 is disclosed as:
  - a receipt of $14,000
  - and a payment of $12,750.
- a transaction through American Express for $17,600 of which $16,864 was deposited in the bank account following the merchant deducting their fee should be disclosed as the full amount of $17,600. The amount of $736 should be recorded as a payment. Also note that in this particular example, funds that are transferred from a bank account to repay a credit card should be eliminated as an internal transfer between accounts held by the same associated entity.
- a deposit of $200 into a third party merchant account (e.g. Eway or Paypal) of which $2.50 was deducted for merchant fees. The full $200 should be recorded as a receipt, and $2.50 as a payment. Also note that where the funds from the third party account have been drawn and banked into the associated entity's bank account, an elimination would also need to be recorded for receipts internally transferred between accounts to avoid overstating total receipts.

- a receipt of $20,000 subsequently refunded must be disclosed as:
  - a receipt of $20,000
  - and a payment of $20,000.

Transactions not to be reported

Internal transactions must not be reported as they result in double counting of amounts received and so overstate the total receipts of the associated entity. Examples of internal transactions include:

- transfers between an associated entity's bank accounts, for example:
  - a transfer between bank accounts both held by the associated entity
  - a transfer from a transaction account to an investment account, such as a term deposit account.
- where the associated entity is lodging on behalf of related entities, receipts of related entities should be consolidated before determining whether the disclosure threshold has been reached, and one return lodged on behalf of all entities.

Other transactions that are not to be reported in the return include:

- commercial discounts received in the normal course of business
- volunteer labour, such as persons handing out how-to-vote cards or services provided in a private capacity by individuals who are party members

Part 2b: Amount calculated to be the value of gifts-inkind

Part 2b of the return requires disclosure of the value of gifts-in-kind which should have been included in the total receipts amount disclosed at Part 2a.

Gifts-in-kind may be goods or services received for which no payment (in cash or in kind) or inadequate consideration is made. Inadequate consideration is where the benefits obtained are clearly of a lesser value than the payment made. Inadequate consideration includes discounts provided that are over and above those that would be offered under normal commercial arrangements.

These gifts are to be disclosed for an amount that reflects the fair value. That is, the normal commercial or sale value of the item or service as evidenced by arms-length transaction or comparative quotations or expert assessment.

Examples of gifts-in-kind could be:

- free/discounted services such as legal advice, accounting services or web and IT services
- excessive payments received for goods, services or other benefits provided (including excessive membership fees)

- wages or salaries (including on-costs) incurred by an employer whose employee works for the associated entity during normal working hours while continuing to receive salary or wages from the employer unless the employee takes paid leave to work for the associated entity
- free/discounted use of premises or equipment and facilities
- free use of a vehicle, or free fuel or servicing of a vehicle
- free/discounted time or production services by a broadcaster
- free/discounted advertising by a publisher or advertising production service
- free air travel or the free use of a private aircraft
- loans provided interest free, or at rates that are less than those available in the commercial loan market
- free/discounted printing, typesetting or associated services
- free/discounted goods or services (for example, travel, artwork, sports memorabilia or electrical goods) for use in raffles or other fundraising activities
- where a person pays a bill/account owed by the party.

Part 3: Amounts of more than $13,800 received in financial year 1 July 2018 to 30 June 2019

Part 3 of the return requires disclosure of the details of amounts received greater than the disclosure threshold ($13,800 in 2018-19).

For each person or entity, the following details must be disclosed:

- full name and address details of the person or organisation from whom the money or gift-in-kind was received
- the sum of amounts received from that person or organisation (details of individual amounts received from the same source that are less than the disclosure threshold are not required to be disclosed)
- whether the receipt is a 'donation' or 'other receipt'.

Note: An 'other receipt' is a receipt that does not meet the definition of a donation (see 'Definition of a donation' above).

Sections 314AC(1) and (2) of the Electoral Act provide for the disclosure of details of amounts received greater than the disclosure threshold.

Where the associated entity is a person or organisation registered under the Australian Charities and Not-for profits Commission Act 2012, an amount received greater than the threshold does not need to be disclosed if no part of it was used during the financial year to:

- create or communicate electoral matter; or
- incur electoral expenditure; or

• to reimburse the associated entity for creating or communicating electoral matter or incurring electoral expenditure.

Examples of amounts received that are required to be disclosed at Part 3 of the return could be:

- funds relating to a loan of $50,000 received from a financial institution
- funds relating to a loan of $20,000 received from a non-financial institution
- a distribution of $14,500 from a trust which was paid into the bank account
- a non-monetary gift valued at $15,000 relating to commercial premises provided to the associated entity rent free for a year. The market rent for the commercial premises is valued at $15,000.
- GST refund of $20,000
- two separate donations are received from the same person on different days. One amount is $9,500 and the other is $35,000:
  - The $35,000 is disclosed in Part 3 as it is more than the disclosure threshold.
  - The $9,500 is not required to be disclosed in Part 3 as it is less than the disclosure threshold. However, both amounts should be disclosed in Part 2a 'total receipts'.

An associated entity should provide additional clarifying information and supporting documentation in situations where disclosure does not provide a clear picture of the underlying transactions. For example, associated entities should separately identify bulk receipts such as membership fees, subscriptions or loan funds that are not required to be disclosed as a receipt above the threshold when the deposit is made up of several amounts under the threshold or where the receipt of a gift was subsequently returned.

Amounts received from unincorporated associations, trusts or foundations

Where an amount has been received from an unincorporated association (other than a registered industrial organisation), the name of the association and the names and addresses of all members of the executive committee of the association must be disclosed.

Where an amount has been received from a trust fund or foundation fund, the name and description of the trust or foundation and the names and addresses of all trustees must be disclosed.

Amounts received as a result of a loan

There are specific record keeping requirements for amounts received as a result of a loan. For loans received from a financial institution (see note below) greater than the disclosure threshold ($13,800 in 2018-19), the name of the financial institution and the sum of all amounts received from the loan must be disclosed.

Note: A financial institution is a bank, credit union, building society or a special service provider registered with the Australian Prudential Regulation Authority (APRA). An up to date list is available from the APRA website.

Section 314AC(3)(ba) of the Electoral Act requires information about amounts received as a result of a loan to be kept.

Section 306A of the Electoral Act makes it unlawful for loans to be received from a person or entity other than a financial institution unless certain records are kept.

Loans received from a person or entity other than a financial institution

For loans received from a person or entity other than a financial institution greater than the disclosure threshold ($13,800 in 2018-19), the terms and conditions of the loan must be kept and the following particulars (as the case requires):

- for a loan from a registered industrial organisation (other than a financial institution), the:
  - name of the organisation
  - names and addresses of the members of the executive committee (however described) of the organisation
- for a loan from an unincorporated association, the:
  - name of the association
  - names and addresses of the executive committee (however described) of the association
- for a loan paid out of a trust fund or out of the funds of a foundation:
  - the names and addresses of the trustees of the fund or foundation
  - title, name or other description of the trust fund or foundation
- for any other loan, the name and address of the person or organisation that made the loan.

Part 4: Total payments for financial year 1 July 2018 to 30 June 2019

Part 4 of the return requires the disclosure of the gross total amount of all payments made by or on behalf of the associated entity to external entities.

Note: the same rules apply for using gross figures and eliminating internal transfers as explained for the completion of 'Total receipts for financial year' at Part 2a of the return.

Amounts paid include, but are not limited to, the following:

- salaries
- administrative expenses
- purchase of assets
- electoral expenses
- loan repayments
- bank charges
- merchant service fees on credit/charge cards
- gifts received but subsequently returned or forfeited to the Commonwealth.

Section 314AEA(1)(b) of the Electoral Act provides for the disclosure of the total amount paid by, or on behalf of, the political campaigner during the financial year.

Examples of amounts paid that are required to be included in the calculation of 'total payments' at Part 4 of the return could be:

- loan repayments paid totalling $32,000
- bank charges of $145 incurred
- repayment of capital totalling $10,000
- merchant service fees totalling $3,400.

Part 5: Total debts as at 30 June 2019

Part 5 of the return requires disclosure of the total outstanding amount of all debts incurred by or on behalf of the associated entity as at the end of the financial year (30 June 2019).

Debts include, but are not limited to, the following:

- loans
- overdrafts
- unpaid accounts

Section 314AEA(1)(c) of the Electoral Act provides for the disclosure of all debts incurred by or on behalf of the associated entity.

Examples of debts outstanding could be:

- loan from a financial institution with outstanding balance of $36,000
- loan from a non-financial institution obtained in a previous financial year with outstanding balance of $8,000
- invoices received, but not paid, from a supplier totalling $4,500
- superannuation payable
- GST and PAYG debt to the ATO. Payroll tax is not required to be included as it is a provision and not considered a debt for the purposes of disclosure.

Note: Employee provisions (for example, provision for annual leave) are not considered debts for the purposes of disclosure.

Part 6: Debts of more than $13,800 as at 30 June 2019

Part 6 of the return requires disclosure of the details of all outstanding debts greater than the disclosure threshold ($13,800 in 2018-19) owed to a person or entity as at the last day of the relevant financial year (that is, 30 June 2019 for the 2018-19 financial year).

Note: debts that are individually less than the disclosure threshold, but from the same person or entity, must be considered in determining whether the debts exceed the disclosure threshold.

The details required to be disclosed are:

- full name and address details of the person or organisation that the debt is owed to
- the amount that is owed
- whether the debt is to a financial institution or non-financial institution.

Section 314AE(1) of the Electoral Act requires disclosure of the details of debts greater than the disclosure threshold.

Examples of debts outstanding that require disclosure of details in Part 6 of the return could be:

- bank overdraft account balance of $24,300
- an individual amount owing on a credit card totalling $14,450
- invoices received from supplier totalling $17,400
- a loan from a financial institution with an outstanding balance of $45,000
- two outstanding invoices payable to the same entity with values of $2,000 and $20,000, a total of $22,000 is required to be disclosed
- GST and PAYG debt to the ATO which are above $13,800.

Debts owed to unincorporated associations

Where a debt is owed to an unincorporated association (other than a registered industrial organisation), the name of the association, along with the names and addresses of each member of the executive committee of the association must be disclosed.

Debts owed to a trust or foundation

Where a debt is owed to a trust or foundation, the name and description of the trust or foundation, along with the names and addresses of all trustees must be disclosed.

Part 7: Details of discretionary benefits

Part 7 of the return requires disclosure of the details of any discretionary benefits (however described) received by or on behalf of the associated entity from the Commonwealth, a State or a Territory during the financial year.

Discretionary benefits include:

- grants
- contracts
- payments
- other benefits requiring the exercise of discretion by the Commonwealth or State or Territory.

Discretionary benefits are different to statutory entitlements, which are provided automatically if specified criteria are met, such as election funding.

Section 314AEA(1)(d) of the Electoral Act provides for the disclosure of details of discretionary benefits received.

The relevant details to be disclosed are the:

- full name of the person or organisation from whom the discretionary benefit was received
- date the discretionary benefit was received
- value or amount of the discretionary benefit.

Part 8: Capital Contributions

Part 8 of the return requires disclosure of the details of amounts paid to or for the benefit of one or more political parties that was paid out of funds generated from capital of the associated entity.

Section 314AEA(3) of the Electoral Act provides for the disclosure of details of amounts paid to political parties from funds generated from capital.

Section 314AEA(4) provides that where contributions have been disclosed in a previous return subsection 3 does not apply.

The relevant details to be disclosed are the:

- full name and address details of the person
- total amount of the contributions to the capital up to the end of the financial year.

Incomplete returns

Where a financial controller is unable to obtain all the information required to fully complete a return, a Notice of Incomplete Return must be completed and lodged with the Associated Entity Disclosure Return.

Where it is necessary to submit a Notice of Incomplete Return:

- complete the Associated Entity Disclosure Return as fully as possible
- complete the Notice of Incomplete Return
- lodge the Notice of Incomplete Return and the incomplete Associated Entity Disclosure Return with the AEC at the same time.

Note: lodgement of a Notice of Incomplete Return does not relieve the financial controller of the responsibility of making reasonable efforts to obtain the information required to complete the return. The AEC may assess whether the lodgement of a Notice of Incomplete Return was used by a financial controller to avoid their responsibilities under the Electoral Act.

Section 318 of the Electoral Act provides for when a person who is required to furnish a return is unable to do so.

The Notice of Incomplete Return contains three parts:

Part 1 – requires the full details of the information believed to be missing from the return.

Part 2 – requires the:

- reason the particulars listed in Part 1 were unable to be obtained
- details of all attempts made to obtain the missing information.

Part 3 – requires:

- full name/s and address details of the person/s believed to possess the missing particulars
- reason why it is believed this person/s possesses the required information.

Amending returns

A request may be made to, or by the AEC seeking amendment of a return that has been lodged and subsequently found to be incomplete or incorrect.

Section 319A of the Electoral Act provides for the amendment of returns.

Amendments to the return require previously submitted amounts to be provided together with the amended amount/s.

Changes to details of receipts or debts should be separated into:

- additional information not previously provided
- amendment of information previously provided.

In order to avoid confusion or ambiguity the record/s being changed should be clearly identified. Amendments are processed through eReturns.

Administration

Date for public inspection of annual returns

Annual returns are made available for public inspection on the first working day of February each year.

Returns are available for inspection on the AEC's website at www.aec.gov.au.

Record keeping

Associated entities like all other entities and organisations should keep adequate records.

Financial recording systems and procedures must be sufficient to enable the return, which will be publicly available, to be properly completed.

All transactions should be supported by source documents recording the details of individual transactions. Examples of source documents are:

- receipts
- tax invoices
- loan documents
- wages records
- bank deposit books and cheque butts
- bank account statements
- credit card statements
- contract and grant agreements.

Source documents should contain information required to complete the return, such as the:

- date of the transaction
- name of person and/or organisation from whom a receipt was received
- name of person and/or organisation to whom a payment was made
- name and address of organisation that has provided a loan to the associated entity
- total payment made or amount received
- amount of GST
- merchant fees.

Retention of records

Relevant records, whether formal or informal, must be retained for a minimum of 5 years following the end of the reporting period.

A record must also be kept in accordance with any other requirements as determined by the Electoral Commissioner.

A person or entity who fails to comply with these requirements will be subject to civil penalties.

Section 317 of the Electoral Act provides for the retention of records.

Compliance Reviews

The AEC conducts compliance reviews of annual returns lodged by associated entities to verify the accuracy and completeness of disclosures.

Compliance reviews are undertaken 'off-site', however officers of the AEC may still attend associated entity premises to inspect original documentation and to hold an exit interview to discuss the review.

A written report will be issued detailing any findings. This may include advice to amend the political campaigner's return.

Section 316(2A) of the Electoral Act provides for the conduct of compliance reviews.

Further information on the conduct of compliance reviews can be found at Compliance Reviews on the AEC website.

Appendix 3 - eReturns

The eReturns portal allows political parties, associated entities, donors and third parties to fulfil their obligations under Part XX of the Electoral Act. By preparing and lodging disclosure returns electronically the need to re-key data is eliminated and it ensures that information is accurately reported on the AEC website when returns are made publically available.

To use the eReturns portal you need an account with a unique username and password. New financial controllers of associated entities will have a username and password sent to them with their obligation letter. Obligation letters to associated entities are sent after 30 June of that financial year.

For more information about lodging a return online using eReturns please refer to the eReturns Quick Reference Guides, available on the AEC website.
