Completing this form:

- This form is for use by a non-parliamentary party applying for registration where the Australian Electoral Commission has issued a notice to the party under s.131(1) of the Commonwealth Electoral Act 1918 that it is of the opinion it must refuse the application unless the party is prepared to vary its application.
- Further information about these processes is provided in the Party Registration Guide available at www.aec.gov.au.
- Information on this form is collected under the Commonwealth Electoral Act 1918.
- A statutory declaration must accompany a new list of party members or an updated constitution that is provided in response to the s.131(1) notice.

Name of Party

Please enter the party name exactly as it appeared in your original application.

The Australian Electoral Commission (the AEC) has advised us under s.131(1) of the Commonwealth Electoral Act 1918 (the Act) that it is of the opinion it is required to refuse the application to register the party in its current form, but that we might be prepared to vary the application so that the AEC is not required to refuse it.

We, the original applicants for the registration of the above-mentioned party, request the AEC under s.131(3) of the Act to:

1. vary the party's application for registration as set out on the attached page(s);
[if you choose this option, you must provide the further evidence sought by the AEC in its notice issued to your party]

OR (please strike out 1. or 2.)

2. determine the party's application for registration in its current form.
[if you choose this option, you should expect your application to be refused]

The original 10 applicants for registration must sign this form and provide their details as provided below and on the reverse of this page.
