

Voting in a federal election

By mail

A SOCIAL STORY

I will vote at the federal election.

A federal election is when we choose who is part of Australia's government.

When I vote, I help to choose who is part of Australia's government.

The Prime Minister will choose the date for the election.

The government makes decisions on our behalf about how to run our country.

It is important for me to have a say about who makes the decisions that affect me.

For me to make the best choice possible I can research the candidates or get advice from someone I trust.

My vote is secret. It's my choice who I vote for, and I don't need to tell anyone how I voted unless I want to.

A polling place is a building where you can go to vote.

If I can't vote in a polling place I can still vote.

I can receive my ballot papers through the mail.

This is called a postal vote.

To receive a postal vote, I must apply by filling out a postal vote application.

I can do this by filling out an online application at www.aec.gov.au/pva.

Or I can pick up a postal vote application form from an AEC office.

I can apply for a postal vote once the election date is announced.

It is important for me to submit my postal vote application as soon as possible but it must be submitted no later than 6pm on the Wednesday before voting day.

I can email my application to:
applications@pva.aec.gov.au

I can send it in the mail:

2. DATE OF BIRTH

To fill out my postal vote application, I need to gather some information:

If I'm not sure how to do this, I can ask someone I trust for help. For example, a friend, carer or support worker.

I will need to write my full name – this includes my family name (or surname) and then my given names.

I will also need to write the date I was born.

3. FULL ENROLLED ADDRESS

Please include your street/road and unit number (if applicable).

If you are unsure of your enrolled address please visit www.aec.gov.au/check or call 13 23 26

Then, I need to write my address.

This address is the same as the one I gave when I enrolled to vote.

It is probably the address
where I live now.

This is where your voting papers will be mailed to and can be an address in Australia or overseas.

It is important my ballot papers get to me so I need to answer the question, “Where should we send your ballot papers?”

Ballot papers are forms to show who you can vote for.

I will write the address where I would like to receive my ballot papers.

In case the AEC need to contact me with any questions I need to give them:

- My email address (if I have one)
- My mobile phone number
- My home phone number (if I have one)

My mobile phone and home phone number might be the same.

6. SECURITY QUESTION AND ANSWER

Your security question and answer is used to help verify your postal vote. When you receive your postal vote you will be asked to write your answer on the envelope containing your ballot papers.

Select one security question and write your answer below.

- ☐ A: In what town/city were you born?
- ☐ B: What company did you first work for?
- ☐ C: What was the last school you attended?
- ☐ D: What was the make/model of your first car?
- ☐ E: What is the middle name of your oldest child?

Answer

I will need to choose one of the five security questions.

This is like a password.

I can decide which security question and write my own answer.

I need to remember my answer.

I can choose to write the answer down somewhere safe if I am worried about forgetting it.

I will need to sign the application and put the date I signed it.

When it is time to vote, the AEC will send me my ballot papers.

I will get 2 ballot papers – a white one and a green one, along with a white envelope.

Attached to the green ballot paper I will have a blue certificate.

The blue certificate explains who I am.

It has my name, my address and the security question I chose.

I will also get a white envelope to put my ballot papers and blue certificate in when I have finished voting.

Before I vote I must ask someone to witness my blank ballot papers.

A witness might be someone I know, such as a family member, a friend or a support person.

My witness must be on the electoral roll which means they are able to vote.

My witness needs to make sure I fill out my own ballot papers.

Before I fill them out, I will show my witness the blank ballot papers and the blue certificate.

The blue certificate explains who I am and will include:

- My name
- My address
- The security question I gave the AEC in my application

I will answer the security question. I need to make sure that this is the same answer I gave on my application.

I may have written this answer down and kept it in a safe place.

After that I will sign my name.

If I am not sure what to do, I can ask my witness to help me fill in my blue certificate.

When I have finished filling out the blue certificate, my witness will need to sign it and write the date.

My witness and I must both sign the blue certificate by 6pm on voting day.

Now I am ready to vote.

I will fill out my ballot papers in the presence of my witness, but I also need to remember my vote is secret.

This means I need to fill out my ballot papers in a way that my witness cannot see who I am voting for.
