My objection is simply that I believe it should be a woman's name rather than another man's name given Canberra has one geographic name and one male name currently. The current proposal will mean there are 2 men's names and one geographic name.

For the reason of fairness to the representation of women's contribution to Australia, I would highly endorse the name Cullen out of the short-listed names as the only woman's name short-listed.

I would be grateful if this could be added to the objections.

Thanks if you could treat this then as a comment on an objection, that would be a good way of getting my comment in!

Most appreciated.

Best, Kim

Good Afternoon Kim,

Thank you for your email. The Commonwealth Electoral Act 1918 prescribes that objections must be received by the 6pm deadline on the 4th Friday after the publication of the notice in the Gazette. As last Friday (4 May 2018) was the prescribed day for the ACT Federal Redistribution, we cannot treat your email as an objection. However, the comments on objections period opened today and we are happy to process your email as a comment on objections should you so choose. If you would like us to treat your email as a comment on objection, please let us know via return email.

Kind regards,
