Hello,

I'm writing to voice my objections to the proposal to name the new electorate in the ACT, Bean, but urge you to instead name the electorate Cullen, in recognition of the work of Ngingali Cullen and her contributions to Indigenous Australians and work towards Sorry Day.

This year sees the ACT celebrate a public holiday at the end of May, in honour of Reconciliation Day. What better time to name a new electorate after a significant Indigenous Australian?

Kind regards,

Holly Bidwell
