Good afternoon,

I live in the electorate of Indi and I have read the report proposing boundary changes for the Federal Electorate of Indi.

I am reminded that Indi is known as a Federation Electorate. Indi remains largely unchanged following its creation in 1901. The first representative for Indi was Sir Isaac Isaacs, later to become Australia's first Australian born Governor-General.

The new boundaries taking in Euroa and Violet Town whilst deleting Tungamah in Moira Shire seem a logical and natural fit and I support the Australian Electoral Commission's proposed changes.

Regards.
