Dear Sir

RE: Proposed Federal electoral division and name changes

I submit my objection to the proposed changes as follows:

Name.

The existing divisional name of Corangamite acknowledges the Aboriginal people of the area and should be retained. While I recognise that Mrs May Cox may have made a significant contribution to all the people of Victoria, renaming the division "Cox" smacks of colonialism.

Boundary realignment.

Please see the map below. Basically the change proposes that all of the Golden Plains area is moved to Wannon and the whole of the Colac Otway Shire remains in Corangamite. This change also supports the retention of the existing divisional name of Corangamite.

Colac is geographically closer to Geelong and is generally Geelong focussed.

Thanking you in anticipation.
