Hi Nicole!

I thought I had changed this in an earlier edit of the report, but I was just looking at it as I was writing the Cox newspaper ad and the May Cox para reads:

Corangamite as 'Cox' in honour of May Cox (1883–1953), for her lasting legacy in the teaching of Victorian's swimming and lifesaving,

It has it three times in the latest version of the report. I thought I had asked for it to be edited to 'Victoria's swimming and lifesaving' or 'swimming and lifesaving in Victoria' (can't remember which). Can it be fixed?

Thanks!
