

Comment on objections 16

Martin Bonsey

1 page

Dear Madam/Sir

Noting, but expressing no view on, the controversy surrounding the proposed naming of the ACT's most southerly seat after Charles Bean, and to avoid the competitive element which is involved in selecting other worthy individuals, I write to suggest that the seat be called Namadji, the traditional indigenous name for the area, assuming that is satisfactory to local indigenous representatives.

Yours sincerely

Martin Bonsey
10 May 2018