Good Afternoon AEC,

I am writing to submit my personal objection to the selection of Bean as the name for the new electorate in the ACT.

Although Charles Bean did make a contribution to the nation for his journalistic endeavours during the First World War, his contribution to
The city of Canberra would not hold against others.

I would like to suggest Griffin. After all, Walter Burley Griffin is the true father of Canberra and his work is still being honoured today by Citizens of the city. His vision for Canberra has guided this fine city for a century.

For your consideration,

Shaun Flanagan
