Dear Australian Electoral Commission,

I hereby advocate that Corangamite be renamed to Barrabool after the Aboriginal tribe, geographic location namely the Barrabool Hills which is a distinctive land feature in Victoria and the former Shire of Barrabool which is entirely located within the current electorate of Corangamite. It is worth noting there was a Shire of Corio which was amalgamated into the City of Greater Geelong and the current Shire of Corangamite so those two Aboriginal names are used unlike Barrabool.

Furthermore there is a community of interest between the Bellarine Peninsula and the Surfcoast Shire so I support these two areas inclusion in the new electorate.

Yours Sincerely

Adrian Schonfelder
Former Councillor at the Shire of Barrabool.
