Re- the re-naming of Corangamite to Tucker.

We think that this is a very risky name change.

With one stroke of a pen on the letter 'T' the name would be changed to an obscenity on all the advertising bill boards and other election material.

Graffiti would be widespread throughout the electorate.

Very few people have ever heard of the person named Tucker so re-naming the electorate with that name would achieve very little purpose and would have all the problems outlined above.

We urge the electoral commission to re-think the re-naming of the electorate and to leave well alone.

Yours sincerely,

Sandra and Robert Francis.
