To whom it may concern

I object to the proposal of changing our boundary to Hawke.

Bacchus Marsh will not benefit in any way by changing our boundary. We will be swallowed up the larger localities. It will be extremely detrimental to Bacchus Marsh.

I also object to the name of Hawke. Mr Hawke was a bully union man who became the Labor Prime Minister and I find it offensive that this man who was a womaniser and a drunk will be the name of the proposed Division.

I am totally disillusioned with the whole system.
