

Objection 31

Peter Roach

1 page

I wish to object to the proposed redistribution of the seat of Higgins.

The seat of Higgins has a long historical importance in Australia's federal elections.

It has well served the people within the electorate and should continue to do so.

The existing communities within the suburbs of the seat of Higgins have been long established and a redistribution will sever that long standing connection.

Peter Roach

