Idea details

Idea: Names

Details: I note the proposed boundaries and have no comment on these. However, regarding division names I suggest that you re-name the Division of Bass. This electorate is named after an explorer who already has a major body of water (the Bass Strait) named after him - that should be enough. I suggest renaming it 'Boon'. That I don't even need to mention the subject's first name for you to know who I'm talking about it should be enough evidence that this is the right name for an electorate that is mostly Launceston. I trust this helps.
