Renaming Franklin with an Aboriginal name would be amazing, and no loss to the Franklin legacy given the other recognitions already. If the submissions for an Aboriginal name didn't address criteria enough, did anyone help the people proposing them with encouragement and quality feedback they can understand and use? (Or just the message to try harder next time, or give us a different name next time? With a spirit of reconciliation, surely it should be an achievable task?) I would be thrilled to see Tasmania acknowledge a shared past and a shared future with Aboriginal people by renaming Franklin. (44yr old, female of mixed European heritage, Australian born, residing within the Franklin boundary)
